Due Date to Apply for a Director ID Extended

Although over 1.8M directors have applied for a Director ID number and did so by the due date of 30 November 2022 (78K applying on 29 Nov 2022), there are still approximately 700,000 who are yet to apply. This is according to the Australian Business Registry Services (ABRS) Registrar, Chris Jordan.

Chris Jordan has decided that as long as directors apply by 14th December 2022, then, although penalties or offences may still apply, the ABRS will take a reasonable approach to support people to apply.

So, if you are yet to get your Director ID, you had better get moving! I doubt there will be further extensions granted.

Here is the full statement from Chris Jordan, concerning the extension of time to apply for a Director ID.
